It is declared that the article is the original product of my/our authorship and does not contain quotations or transcriptions of other works without giving due credit to the holders of the rights; in the case of the use of images, photographs or documents that require it, we have the due authorizations of reproduction from those who own the economic rights. If there is a challenge with the content or authorship of the article, the responsibility will be exclusively mine/ours, disclaiming from all responsibility the National Autonomous University of Mexico, the University Program of Bioethics, and the journal Bioética UNAM, of any lawsuit or claim that may be formulated by any natural or legal person who considers himself entitled to the text, assuming as perpetrators all the legal and economic consequences.

For proof of the above, this declaration is signed in the city of _____.
